

Package Inspection

We reserve the right to inspect any package or container brought into our store. Persons bringing packages from other stores are asked to have these stapled closed upon entry. Backpacks, large bags, and similar containers may not be brought into the store.

We have adopted these policies for the protection of everyone and to avoid embarrassing situations that may result when large containers are available.

Customers are asked to bring all merchandise selected to the closest cash register. Under no circumstances may merchandise be removed from the store prior to being processed at a register. The act of concealment is considered to be an act of theft.
